

THE INSIDE STORY

Carbon Neutral Celebration of Lights

During November and December 2008, the 17th Annual Celebration of Lights at Hartwood was a carbon-neutral event for the first time ever. Courtesy of NativeEnergy and Sustainable Pittsburgh, the estimated greenhouse gasses associated with lighting the displays and each vehicle's journey through the park was balanced with high-quality carbon offsets.

Contact: Kevin Evanto 412-350-3171 kevin.evanto@allegHENYcounty.us